

COPYRIGHT POLICY

This Copyright Policy defines the ownership, use, and protection of copyrighted materials related to Travonova's tours and travel products (A Part / Project of Machpay LLP).

"Travonova," "we," "us," or "our" refers to Travonova as an entity.

"Content" includes, but is not limited to:

- Tour itineraries and descriptions
- Details of hotels, accommodations, and activities
- Images, videos, graphics, and audio
- Presentations, marketing materials, and metadata

1. Ownership of Travonova Content

All Content displayed on Travonova's website, applications, and related platforms is protected by copyright and intellectual property laws.

You may not copy, reproduce, distribute, modify, republish, or create derivative works from any Content without our prior written permission.

Content may only be downloaded for personal, non-commercial use where explicitly permitted, provided all copyright notices remain intact.

2. Content Supplied by Partners

This section applies to hotels, activity providers, homestays, guides, transport operators, and other local partners who contribute services or content to Travonova.

2.1 Original Content Requirement

All Content provided to Travonova must be:

- Original: 100% unique and not copied, adapted, or derived from other websites, online travel agencies (OTAs), brochures, social media, or any other digital or physical source.
- Owned: You must own the content you submit.

If similar descriptions exist on your own marketing materials, the content must be fully rewritten before submission. Partners are responsible for proving ownership and originality.

2.2 Scope of Service Representation

By submitting details of a service (hotel, activity, etc.), You confirm that:

- You are the actual service provider.
- The service is supplied as part of a Travnova tour or travel offering.
- You are not representing yourself as the tour operator.

Outsourcing services to undisclosed third parties is not permitted without Travnova's written approval.

2.3 Media Ownership

All media supplied to Travnova (images, videos, marketing creatives, etc.) must be:

- Fully Owned: You must own the media, or
- Created with Full Rights: The media was created specifically for You with full transferable rights.

If using stock images, Creative Commons material, AI-generated media, or third-party licensed content, You must have proper commercial licensing and permissions. Partners must provide written proof of rights upon request.

2.4 License Granted to Travnova

By providing Content, You grant Travnova a perpetual, worldwide, royalty-free, and irrevocable license to use, reproduce, modify, publish, distribute, and display that Content for operational and marketing purposes. This includes use on our platforms, in promotional materials, and with our partners.

3. Reporting Copyright Infringement

If You believe any Content on our Platform infringes Your copyright, please contact us immediately with detailed information on the alleged infringement. We will investigate and take appropriate action.

4. Changes to This Policy

Travonova may update this Copyright Policy at any time. The updated version will be posted on this page with a revised "Last Updated" date.

